Description

Original - Oil on Canvas.

I think we all wear a mask, I spent most of my life wearing a ski mask, committing Bank and security Van robberies. I painted myself with paint covering my head and face, my new mask, an artist, a painter. in my glasses is a reflection of the prison wing I was in at the time I painted this self portrait. A reflection of my past as I looked forward to wearing my new mask.

Signed by the Artist.
