Description

Conservation Framed with AR70 Glass.

Inspired by an original artwork commission by London's Brown's hotel, Kristjana has created a stunning pair of new Limited Edition tree prints, one that evokes the pink hues of blossom and the other that mirrors the cerulean skies of springtime.

A hero stag stands majestically at the foot of this tree, its canopy burgeoning with vivacity and life. A kaleidoscope of butterflies flit between boughs laden with lavish foliage and exotic fauna, creating a natural movement unperturbed by the air around it. Giant birds sit serenely on tender branches, and whimsical moths, their wings adorned with serpent heads, belie a self-preservation mechanism found throughout nature and reflected here in the array of animals that have gathered from all over the world to preside in this most British of springtime trees.
