Kristjana loves working in pairs, and seeks out motifs that resonate with her and that she can visualise for use in future artworks. These intricate Victorian engravings of tigers and birds work perfectly for the theme of her latest collection of Limited Edition prints. It's All About Love.

A pair of lovestruck wild cats share their intimate story, narrated by a passing ship that whispers tales of their adventure. In this precious moment, tenderly lit by candle light, the majestic pair are weightless with anticipation, literally walking on water, their ornamented heads in the clouds. The female is assured, looking calmly serene as the male leans in for a kiss. This luminous tableau of love is framed by a pair of snow-white stallions, a sacred symbol of strength and fertility.
