Description

Conservation Framed with AR70 Glass.

Northern Lights is a beautiful calming new print of the iconic Erno Goldfinger-designed Trellick Tower. Each one is hand screen printed, with a fade from vibrant teal to deep blue and for that reason, each print is unique, as the blend meets the sky and creates new shades in between.

With the rich Northern Lights-inspired sky and gold windows, this print is even more appealing on closer inspection and would brighten up any wall!

Hand Pulled Screen print on Fabriano Smooth Paper.
