Description

You may already be familiar with Jo's recent mural opposite Poppleton School, a stunning creation commissioned for one of our collectors over the Easter period. It was during the execution of this mural that Jo immersed herself in the rich architectural landscape of York, drawing inspiration that has culminated in her latest work, "Eboracum."

"Eboracum" is an assemblage of buildings that captured Jo's attention during her stay in the city.

4 colour screen print on 250gsm somerset velvet newsprint with deckled edge.
