Description

Conservation Framed with AR70 Glass.

Eyes are the windows to the soul, and this limited edition print, seen through thousands and thousands of water droplets with each acting as a tiny lens, includes the reflected thoughts and ideas crowd sourced from people from around the globe via social media. There are over 35 cameos in these lenses, from endangered species and images of the natural world, to cultural and graphical icons - from a blue whale and panda bear, to the moon, Jupiter and David Bowie! A snapshot of our time, in the blink of an eye.

Reproduced from the original hand drawn illustration in high resolution giclée print on 308gsm 100% cotton paper. Hand embellished with 12k White Gold Leaf.
