Description

Conservation Framed with AR70 Glass.

A stunning tree print, part inspired by Aesop's canine fable, championing the virtues of faith and loyalty. Two bedecked dogs, their corresponding lock and key symbolising their allegiance, and obedience, sit at the foot of this towering tree, its boughs alive with an abundance of delicate and colourful flora and fauna. The loyalty theme is replicated in the myriad of dogs inhabiting the tree, each magnificent in its dazzling armour of feathers and flowers, waiting patiently to greet their master. A duo of spiders, the ultimate symbols of creativity, weave a gem-like web, dripping from this most alluring of trees. Intricate butterflies flit between exotic dalmatian spotted orchids - counterpoints to the native oak leaves - while bedecked stallions, themselves loyal servants, dance on their woody perch, waiting to carry you away into this most immersive of natural worlds; one that depicts the joys and comforts of every-day life.
